

OPENING OF AVIATION SEASON THIS WEEK

Meets in Europe From April to November Will Surpass All Previous Events—Baseball in Important Leagues Begins During April.

New York, March 29.—The present week will witness the opening of an aviation season in Europe, surpassing all previous ones. From April to November there will be an almost uninterrupted series of races and other events for both aeroplanes and hydro-aeroplanes. Several contests will have naval and military sanction, while others will be of a purely sporting nature.

In the sporting class, the race for the international speed championship in September, the United States, Great Britain, France, the United States, Great Britain, Germany and Italy, will attract the greatest interest in this country. Prizes aggregating $15,000 will be distributed among the winning pilots in the opening races. Following in rapid order will come contests at Monte Carlo and St. Petersburg.

Events in the month of May include the Prince Henry circuit race on a course the extreme points of which are Hamburg and Amsterdam. Prize money is in excess of $17,000, and between May 17 and 25 the successful entrants will cover a total distance of 1,100 miles. Between May 25 and 30 the London-to-Paris-to-London races will be staged, as well as the Genoa-Tripoli-Genoa race. The German three-river circuit contest will be held in June, and July will be devoted to the English Channel marine flying contests. The Varnemunde events for flying boats and hydro-aeroplanes, under the auspices of the Aero Club of Germany, will be the feature of August. September events include the international race meet in Brescia, contests, while the South German circuit races and the French coast contests for flying boats will be held in October.

Still other events, for which the dates have not been fixed, or which are open to all-season competition, include the $2,000 prize for the French aviator who covers the greatest distance in a straight line between the course of one day and sunset of the east, the $1,000 prize for the fastest 1,500 miles, for a $5,000 prize, Constantinople-Berlin race, Paris-Vienna, Paris-Bucharest, Constantinople-Berlin, all of which carry $2,000 prizes, and the Paris-Helopolis event for a $2,000 prize.

QUIMET WILL MEET EUROPEAN GOLFERS

Boston, March 29.—Francis Quimet, youthful holder of the national open golf championship, who is a native of France, will meet the European golfers on the famous courses of the British Isles and Europe on his twenty-first birthday, the conqueror of the noted British professionals, Vardon and Hay, will be getting a taste of the British amateur championship tournament over the Sandwich course on May 13 and 14.

The first competition in which Quimet will engage will be for the historic Saint George's grand and challenge cup at Sandwich, May 13 and 14. Immediately after engaging in the British amateur championship Quimet will leave for the Continent to take part in the French amateur championship at La Houle, May 25, 26 and 27. Later he will make a tour of the Scotch courses in June, and then return to open championship at Prestwick, June 25 to 29.

Quimet is accompanied by Arthur G. Lockwood, a former Massachusetts amateur champion, who is a native of England. While abroad he will meet Jerome D. Travers, the American amateur champion, and Frederick Herre, who twice has been runner-up for that title. It will be the first appearance of American amateur and open golf champions together in British championship play.

Quimet had little to say about what he thought of his prospects.

JOHN MARSHALL IS READY FOR OPENING

To-morrow will mark the opening of the John Marshall baseball season. The Blue and White team will have as opponent the Chester Academy High School. The game will be played at Byrd Park, and is scheduled for 7:30 p. m. at 8 o'clock. The "Aggies" handed the locals a stinging defeat in football last season, and the Blue and White are determined to avenge the defeat by traveling at top speed to the "farmers" if necessary. Little has been heard of the Chester team, but judging from last season's performance they will put a corking good team on the field against the locals.

In addition to the game with Chester, John Marshall has two big games booked for next week. The first with Richmond Academy, and the second at Broad Street Park, and the second in Charlottesville Saturday with the Jefferson School team. The game with the Academy marks the beginning of the open league championship series, and the Marshallites are determined to start out with a game chalked up for them in the "won" column. The game with Jefferson will be one of the best of the local schedule, and the public school boys are going to journey to the university town with a determination to avenge the defeat handed the local basketball team by the Jefferson champions.

Four-Weapon Championship.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
New York, March 29.—One of the features of the annual Eastern rifle championship meet at Segant in the fall will be a national all-round four-weapon championship. Trap-shooting will be one of the tests in this competition, introducing the shotgun for the first time. Heretofore such matches have been confined to rifle, revolver and pistol, and a minimum in the clay bird division would count fifty points out of a possible 150.

ALBEMARLE HUNT CLOSES SEASON

Many Riders Follow the Hounds Over Five-Mile Course.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Charlottesville, Va., March 29.—The Albemarle County Hunt held its last drag of the season yesterday afternoon. The members of the Keswick Hunt joined in the meet by invitation. Following the chase, a hunt breakfast was given by the members of the two hunt clubs and the guests. Dancing was indulged in after the breakfast, the social set of the county being well represented. The drag started at Old Shadwell, and was over a splendid five-mile course, many jumps being negotiated by the riders. Those following the hounds were: Sidney J. Rodock, M. F. H. on Pendulum; William H. Balz, whip, on Paradox; Dave Sloan, whip, on School Boy; Mrs. E. H. Joslin, on Topknot; Harry Dinwiddie, on Ardy; Laurie Payne, on Best Girl; Joe Jagger, on Starlight; Billy Ewers, on Red Squirrel; and Harry B. Hendrick, on Dr. Bill. Other riders present at the meet were Mrs. J. H. Holloway, Mr. and Mrs. Murray Roeder, of "Castalia"; Miss Lindsay Satterfield, of Keswick; and J. Stuart Hancock.

WOOD RECOVERING RAPIDLY

Joe Wood, the classy twirler of the Boston Red Sox, whose rapid recovery from a recent operation for appendicitis has gladdened the heart of Manager Bill Carrigan. Wood has informed Carrigan that he will be ready to take his regular turn in the box by the first week in May.

Colts and Yankees Again To-Day

Weather permitting, Yankees and Colts will complete a two-game series, begun Saturday, this afternoon at 4 o'clock. Manager Chance will use exactly the same line-up with which he will start the season in the American League. Manager Ryan will follow the policy he has established thus far, and use all of his recruits, giving each a chance to show his ability. Itay Caldwell and Heinie Schulz will, in all probability, do the honors for the New Yorks, while Smallwood, Strain, Byrd and McIntyre will likely divide the game for the Colts.

Manager Ryan is still unable to name his club. It is whispered that a few cans may still be rattled, and the squad reduced by one or two. The same whisper intimates that one pitcher is to be let out, and that an outfielder may find the ways ground for him. However, this is just the vaguest sort of rumor. Ryan is still waiting to hear from another aspirant for picket honors, and until the youngster arrives will be forced to hold on to what he has.

To-morrow the Newark club, champion of the International League, will be seen in action.

SUPERBAS PLAY SENATORS TO-DAY WON BY AMERICANS

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Washington, March 29.—Manager Robinson and his Superbas arrived here to-day for the game with the Senators to-morrow. When asked what he thought of the prospects of his team this season, he said:
"I predict that we have one of the best teams this year that ever represented Brooklyn. The men are all in good condition."
"With the coming of Egan I think we have one of the best in baseball to-day. He fits in nicely with Cutshaw at second. In the outfield I am very fortunate in having such players as Wheat, Riggert, Stengel, Dalton and Kraft."
"In Miller, Erwin, McCarthy and Fischer I have a quartette of backstops it would be hard to duplicate. Egan and Brown, the twirling stuff, are both ready, and I expect them to make the best showing of their careers."

NEW YORK GIANTS DEFEAT HOUSTON

Mantell in "Richelieu."

Sir Edward Bulwer Lytton's "Richelieu" has been chosen by Robert B. Mantell as the play in which he will open his Richmond engagement at the Academy this evening. "Richelieu" has in it the elements of both the romance of this evening, "Richelieu," and "The Face in the Moonlight," in which he is well remembered by the older theatregoers of Richmond, and of powerful tragedy that made Sir Mantell's reputation in recent years among American actors. "Richelieu" is one of the few dramas of modern times considered worthy of a rank alongside the creations of Shakespeare. Since this play was first staged in London in the early thirties of the past century it has been a favorite with tragedians. Mr. Mantell's presentation is considered the best now visible on the American stage. To-morrow evening, Mr. Mantell will play "Hamlet." The Wednesday matinee bill, by request of local school people, will be "Macbeth," and Mr. Mantell will complete his engagement on Wednesday night in "King Lear."
